Dear Parent / Guardian,

Active Schools provide an established Young Leadership Pathway offering your child the opportunity to undertake a number of roles which range from assisting with extra-curricular clubs to organising a sporting event.

As part of the pathway, Active Schools Young Leaders will undertake a specific role and Active Schools Young Ambassadors will commit to a number of roles and meet regularly with their Active Schools Co-ordinator.

For further information please see the Active Schools Young Leadership Pathway available from your Active Schools Co-ordinator.

As part of these roles your permission is required for:

- Active Schools Coordinators to contact your child via text, phone call and email.
- Photographs and videos to be used for promotion in local and national press and shared through social media channels.

I give my permission for my son / daughter to undertake a role in the Active Schools Young Leadership Programme.
